HAITI RECONSTRUCTION FORUM 2011

Procurement and Business Opportunities in Haiti

SAVE THE DATE: Thursday, December 8th, 2011

Please mark your calendar for the Haiti Reconstruction Forum 2011 in Miami, Florida on December 8th, 2011. This important event is being organized by Enterprise Florida Inc., Miami-Dade County, U.S. Department of Commerce, and the U.S. Executive Director at the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), Mr. Gustavo Arnavat. The forum will feature speakers from the IDB, USAID, U.S. State Department, private sector businesses, and organizations involved in Haiti's reconstruction.

The forum will highlight the important role of the United States Government in leveraging multilateral resources to assist a neighboring country during a time of need, while promoting job creation in the United States. The forum will also provide information on new projects in Haiti, contract opportunities, updates on existing reconstruction projects, a discussion on best practices with companies that have been successful in Haiti, and practical workshops on how to bid for IDB, World Bank, and USAID contracts.

Key Features of the Forum will Include:

- An overview of existing reconstruction projects.
- New projects and new contract opportunities in Haiti.
- A workshop on how to bid for IDB, World Bank, and USAID contracts.
- Best practices and success stories from companies engaged in the Haitian market.
- How to prepare investment proposals for the Inter-American Investment Corporation.
